

It has come to the attention of the Board of Education that someone is walking around North Caldwell selling encyclopedias insinuating an endorsement from the Board of Education and School Administration. The Board of Education has not endorsed, nor required any parent to purchase this set of encyclopedias.

The choice to purchase is an individual choice, in no way recommended by the Board of Education.

Thank you,

The North Caldwell Board of Education